

3. What conflict (problem) does the boy face?

4. What is the resolution of the story (how does the story end)? How is the conflict resolved?

5. What “coming-of-age” lesson has the boy learned?

“Through the Tunnel” by Doris Lessing

Date of presentation: _____

1. What is the setting of the story?

2. Who is the boy (protagonist)? Describe.

3. What conflict (problem) does the boy face?

4. What is the resolution of the story (how does the story end)? How is the conflict resolved?

5. What “coming-of-age” lesson has the boy learned?

4. What is the resolution of the story (how does the story end)? How is the conflict resolved?

5. What “coming-of-age” lesson has the narrator’s friend learned?